1ST COMMUNITY BILINGUAL SURVEY RESULTS
July 16 - August 15

- 273 people participated
  - 35 Spanish
  - 238 English

- 60% said are "very concerned" about the environment

- 60% said it is “very important” that the City reduces its emissions to 0 metric tons of greenhouse gases before 2045
1ST SURVEY RESULTS

Top concerns:
- Poor water quality (rivers, wetlands, and lakes)
- Droughts
- Loss of habitat & species

Top initiatives for the City to do:
- Improve sustainable building practices
- Invest in water conservation
- Increase food systems security & storage

Top initiatives to reduce carbon emissions:
- Creation of urban forests and green spaces
- Composting & recycling
- Transportation programs

OUTREACH EFFORTS
During Covid-19

- Social media and our website
- Newspaper ads (including online)
- City newsletter

- Emails to community partners, youth organizations, and City staff

- In person outreach during covid (farmers market, senior center, library)